DOVER GETS 3 YEARS SUSPENDED SENTENCE IN OHIO PENITENTIARY

Defendant Withdrew Motion for Change of Venue This Afternoon and Pleaded Guilty to Manslaughter

PATHETIC SCENE IN THE COURT ROOM

Prosecution and Defense, Argue Motion for Change of Venue Monday Morning and Dover Withdraws His Request at the Afternoon Session of Court.

Judge E. M. Wickham at 2:30 this afternoon sentenced Art Dover, charged with first degree murder, to three years in the penitentiary, suspending the sentence during the pleasure of the court. This sentence was passed after the defendant withdrew his motion for a change of venue, which was argued this morning before the court, and entered a formal plea of guilty to the charge of manslaughter.

Dover himself was almost overcome with emotion when the purport of the court's sentence dawned upon him. His wife and mother, after expressing their joy to their attorneys and had embraced the prisoner, shook Judge Wickham's hands warmly and thanked him for his clemency.

His attorneys, Messrs. J. R. Fitzgibbon and Edward Kibler, Sr., were both visibly affected by the emotion of their client and his relatives.

With practically every juror who was summoned present in court, the case of Ohio against Art Dover, one of the riot cases, was called Monday morning before Judge E. M. Wickham of Delaware.

There was a short delay while Judge Seward disposed of some cases assigned for Monday morning, while counsel for the defendant conferred with their client.

At 9:30 the case proceeded, when Ex-Prosecutor J. R. Fitzgibbon, one of the attorneys for the defendant, presented the application of Dover for a change of venue on the ground that a public sentiment would prevent a fair and impartial trial in Licking county. This application was supported by the affidavits of eight or ten citizens of Newark, a half dozen being attorneys and the others being business men of the city.

Mr. Fitzgibbon stated to the court that this case was similar to the Bolton case, in which a change of venue was granted and urged the court to pass favorably upon the application.

Prosecutor Smythe, the application of the court and said that it was his contention that a change of venue should not be granted merely upon the opinion of persons, even though the opinion was in the form of an affidavit. That the fact of a prejudice or sentiment against the defendant should be proven the same as an application for change of venue in any other judicial proceedings.

The prosecutor held that the affidavits stated no facts or circumstances given in the affidavits and cited authorities from law reports and other legal reference books to support his contention.

Attorney Fitzgibbon, supporting the application of the defendant, emphasized the fact that the affidavits all contained the statement that the defendant had been resident of Newark and Licking county a certain number of years and that they were acquainted with the defendant and feeling of the community regarding the riot, and particularly against the defendant and that with this knowledge it was their opinion that a fair and impartial verdict could not be had, because of that feeling and sentiment. The attorney cited authorities sustaining his contention.

The authorities quoted by each side were submitted to the court and at 10 o'clock the court announced that the motion would be decided at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Monday Afternoon.

When the Art Dover case was resumed Monday afternoon after a recess from 10 o'clock to 1 p. m., while the court prepared its decision in the matter of a motion for a change of venue, a new turn was taken in the case. Attorney Fitzgibbon for the defense addressed the court and stated that the defendant wished to withdraw his motion for a change of venue, and later a formal plea of guilty to manslaughter was entered.

This was accepted by the state's attorneys and an entry was made accordingly.

Dover's counsel asked for a suspended sentence in the case, while Prosecutor Smythe informed the court that it had been the state's policy in other trials not to suggest the penalty imposed in cases of conviction or where the defendants voluntarily entered pleas of guilty. He said the same idea prevailed in this case.

Witnesses were called to testify as to the confusion in identifying the second and third persons who spoke, John Sullivan, who has known Dover for several years, said the second man who spoke was not Dover. Jas. Sheridan, who was with Sullivan at the time, was out of the city, and could not be brought into court to testify. The court asked Dover what connection he had with the speech making. Dover told the court that he was seized by two men and placed upon the stone and ordered to make a speech. He told the court he was an Eagle from Coshocton and at that the crowd left him on the stone alone.

Dover's attorneys stated that the man was under the influence of liquor and that his condition was such that he could not stand on the stone alone.

"Have you anything to say why the sentence of the court should not be passed upon you?" said the court to Dover.

"Nothing, your honor. I will throw myself upon your mercy. I would like to say, however, that I did not know Howard was an Eagle, until I read about it in the paper the next day."

The court, after a few questions stated that it was his opinion that counts should be careful in passing sentence in such cases or they would find themselves vindictive. He said it was to be regretted that the records would show that he had any connection with the trouble of July 8 last.

"It is the sentence of this court, Mr. Dover, that you spend three years in the penitentiary. Sentence is suspended during the pleasure of the court."

AMUSEMENT PARK AT SAN FRANCISCO DAMAGED BY FIRE

San Francisco, May 29. — Several lives are believed to have been lost and damage aggregating $250,000 was caused by fire at the Clunes Amusement Park at 1 a. m. today. Firemen prevented the flames from spreading to the entire park. Four persons are missing and five are injured. Scores of animals in the park managerie burned to death. Fire started in the park restaurant.

60-YEAR-OLD WOMAN ARTIST ARRESTED AS LEADER OF BAND OF HORSE THIEVES

Mrs. Rosa Berry
Mrs. Rosa Berry, aged sixty, arrested at Marion, Ind., for horse stealing, is accused of being leader of a band of horse thieves, which operated near Vistula, Mich. She is an artist of some note, her animal paintings being exceptionally good. She seems unable to explain why she should steal horses or commit any crime.

ROOSEVELT WANTED TO TESTIFY ABOUT THE STEEL TRUST TO CONG. COM.

Washington, May 29. — Former President Roosevelt may appear before the Stanley steel trust investigating committee to tell what he knows about the Tennessee Coal & Iron Company deal. The committee is awaiting an answer to an informal invitation sent him to appear and testify. Following the testimony of J. W. Gates Saturday, which contradicted practically the entire Roosevelt letter, in which Roosevelt said

Gary and Frick volunteered to "save the situation by taking over the T. C. & I., the committee decided to get in touch with Roosevelt. They believe that through Roosevelt they can establish that Gary and Frick came to Washington and bunched the president (Roosevelt) into believing that the merger was the only way to prevent imminent financial chaos. The Stanley committee will meet again tomorrow.

MRS. HOPPER SURRENDERS TO SHERIFF

She Was Wanted for the Alleged Murder of Carl Sanborn of Columbus.

Columbus, May 29. — Mrs. Maud Hopper, wanted for the alleged murder of Carl Sanborn, who was dead body was found here May 17, walked into the sheriff's office today and surrendered. She said she had been visiting in Dayton and was amazed at the charge against her.

FLOOD TAKES MANY LIVES.
Amoy, China, May 29. — A considerable loss of life and much damage to property on account of heavy floods are reported from Chang Chow Fu, Fukien Province, and the West river villages.

JOLT HANDED DEFENSE IN DR. NYE CASE

Columbus, O., May 29. — The defense in the Nye baby trial received a blow today when Judge Kinkead refused to allow the testimony of N. P. Clynburn. The defense had relied on his testimony to prove that there was only one conversation between Nye and State Printer Crawford and that it took place in the latter's office, no money being offered Judge Kinkead said he would refuse to allow either the testimony of Clynburn or Clerk Nichols to go to the jury, as he said it was not relative to the case.

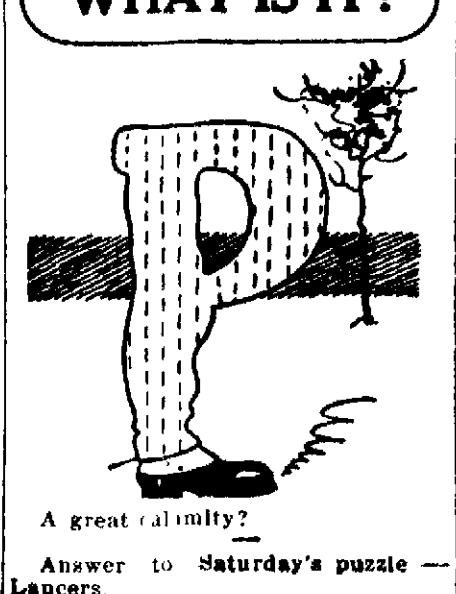

DEFENSE SCORES.
Charles E. Bonebrake was then placed on the stand and testified that he saw Crawford after the Nye indictment and that Crawford told him Nye had asked for $500 in Crawford's office. Crawford was called and denied the conversation as related by Bonebrake. On cross examination Bonebrake admitted being a friend of Nye's for the last ten years. C. B. Huling, placed on the stand to corroborate Bonebrake's story, said the latter had told him something about Crawford and the offer of money, but Huling could not remember that Bonebrake mentioned any particular place at that time.

CUT IN STEEL PRICES TO OFFSET FEDERAL SUIT

Pittsburg, May 29. — Judge E. H. Gerry is here today to confer with the directors of the United States Steel Corporation to decide whether the price made on every article by the various companies meet the cut made by the Republic Company on articles made by it, the cut will be sufficient. Others, however, want a general price-slashing on everything and a termination of the famous "gentlemen's agreement," hoping that this actual competition will force steel or offset federal suits which may be started under the Sherman law. Judge Gerry today refused to comment on the testimony of Gates before the House committee on Saturday.

MISSING MAN FOUND IN RIVER.
Cleveland, May 29. — The mystery in the disappearance of Homer W. Messenger, a trustee of the National Order of Railway Mail Clerks, who left home last Tuesday to go fishing was partly cleared up Sunday, when his body was found in Rocky river. Messenger was alone on the fishing trip, and how he was drowned remains unexplained.

WHAT IS IT?
A great calamity?
Answer to Saturday's puzzle — Lancers.

TORRIDITY BROKEN BY HEAVY RAIN

Storm Was Well Distributed Over the Entire Country

TEMPERATURE DROPPED

From 20 to 30 Degrees Bringing Immense Relief to Withering Thousands.

Chicago, Ill., May 29. — Heavy rains, surging back and forth over the city throughout the day Sunday, broke the deadly torridity which so far this spring has slain more than 30 persons, and brought relief to the parched parks, gardens and pastures, and also washing the streets, a function not carefully attended to by the authorities.

Dispatches from outside points indicate that the storm was fairly well distributed. St. Louis had heavy rains and all over Illinois there were storms. At several points the wind assumed the proportions of a cyclone, causing deaths and much destruction of property.

Lightning also took its toll in several deaths at widely varying points. Across the Indiana state line, the wind storm lowered the temperature 24 degrees in less than an hour.

In Chicago the temperature shot down from 94 to 65, bringing immense relief to the thousands who were withering under the intense humid heat. Lightning struck and partially destroyed the great warehouse of Farwell & Company, and did other minor damage about the city.

The wind, which did so much damage in the country, did not attain dangerous force in this city. Thousands of pleasure seekers were caught in the parks, in the country woods, on the lake, and badly soaked, but there is not much complaint because of the general rejoicing at even temporary surcease of the torrid conditions.

Twenty-seven thousand baseball fans sat through sporadic showers to witness the Sox-Cleveland game and even the players seemed to enjoy wallowing in the mud and racing through torrents of rain.

The break in the temperature, which had not been expected until some time last night, lifted a heavy load of responsibility and work from the shoulders of the municipal and other charity organizations, which have been at the limit of their resources during the heated spell.

Unusual care was used in forcing the tonement districts to clean up garbage and the heavy rains have served to make these congested districts habitable.

So far as known there were no lake disasters, although hundreds were out in steamers and small boats when the storm struck. However, there was sufficient warning for those anywhere near harbor to make safety before the storm arose.

GRAND STAND BLOWS OVER DURING GAME.
Granite City, Ill., May 29. — Twenty persons were seriously injured, one of two fatally, in the Madison County Baseball League Park yesterday afternoon by a tornado, which blew over the grand stand. Thirteen of the injured are members of the opposing ball team.

When the storm broke the spectators fled and the players sought refuge in the dressing room beneath the grand stand. As they emerged the wind lifted the grand stand 20 feet from its foundation and landed it upside down upon the ball players and others, who were pinned beneath the wreckage 20 minutes before hundreds of citizens lifted the stand and released them.

Sidney Magnus, Granite City's pitcher, was fatally injured. Ernest Robinson, son of E. C. Robinson, a lumber dealer, remains unconscious and may die.

TWO KILLED WHEN A CYCLONE STRUCK CITY.
Pekin, Ill., May 29. — Clyde Sakors and Frank Wooley, aged 16, were killed here Sunday when a cyclone struck the city. The boys took refuge in an ice house and were crushed when the building was blown down.

Four others who were with them were buried in the debris and seriously injured. The heavy wind was followed by a downpour of hail and rain that did great damage to fruit and crops.

The steeple of the German M. E. church was blown down while Sunday school was in progress. The children were thrown into a panic, but none was injured.

GOOD SLEIGHING REPORTED.
Winnipeg, Man., May 29. — Snow fell throughout northern Saskatchewan Saturday from noon until midnight. Good sleighing Sunday was reported throughout the entire district.

HIGH POINT REACHED.
Toledo, O., May 29. — Although the mercury reached 95 degrees here Sunday, the highest point reached in May during the past 25 years, there were no prostrations reported.

HAIL STORM IN INDIANA.
Anderson, Ind., May 29. — Torrid temperature Sunday culminated in a thunderstorm with rain that flooded streets and cellars. Heavy hail rained small fruit and wind blew down many trees and did other damage.

ENGINE CRUSHED THROUGH TRESTLE KILLING FOUR

Charlotte, N. C., May 29. — A double-header coal train on the Seaboard Air Line went through a trestle two miles east of Bostock at 7 o'clock last night, killing both engineers and both firemen. The trestle was weakened by fire, which the first engineer did not see, and gave way with the weight of the engines.

The Dead.

Fifteen of the 29 loaded steel coal cars crashed through the fire-eaten woodwork of the trestle into Watkins Creek, piling upon the two engines and burying the helpless victims in a mass of wreckage.

TWO WIVES ARE AFTER INSURANCE

Coshocton, May 29. — Information which has come to light in the past few days indicates that Joseph McKimmins, a victim of an accident at the Clow plant a week ago, left two widows to contend for his life insurance. Wife No. 2 resided with him in Coshocton at the time of his death. A week or more after the accident, Wife No. 1 wrote from Mt. Vernon asking for his description and information regarding his death, and a few days later filed a claim for the life insurance. No one here has seen Wife No. 1, but in her letter she states that McKimmins left her several years ago and that she lost all trace of him. He carried a $1000 insurance policy with the Modern Woodmen.

JEALOUS WIDOWER'S ACT.
Ravenna, O., May 29. — Crazy because another fellow took 18-year-old Gladys Wheeler home after he had asked the privilege Saturday night, Eugene E. Lewis, aged 29, a widower, shot and killed himself. Lewis' wife shot herself at Garrettsburg a year ago.

PLANNED OVERTHROW OF MADERO

American Alleged to be One of the Chief Conspirators

TRAILED BY DETECTIVES

Who Secured Evidence Which Resulted in Arrest Sunday Night.

El Paso, Texas, May 29. — With the arrest of De Villars of Mexico City and W. F. Dunn, an American, for plotting against Madero, it is believed one of the chief obstacles to Madero's control has been overcome. Gen. Villjoen, who caused the arrest, said today that he had known De Villars during the Boer war. He says the scheming against Madero started eight days ago, when he received the first message from De Villars. Villjoen says Madero has copies of letters and telegrams from Dunn to others in the plot, making a clear case. Mrs. Villjoen, who entertained De Villars and Dunn frequently, said she knew they were scamps, but had to help her husband lead them into a trap to save Madero. For five days all the newspaper men at the Sheldon Hotel knew of the plot, but were pledged to secrecy, because the time was not ripe to arrest the plotters. Francisco Madero Sr., father of the leader, said today that he thought the plot was the work of the many grafting interests of Mexico.

"I believe the evidence will show that even members of the Mexican congress are involved in the plot to assassinate me and start a new revolution."

This was Madero's statement to the United Press today. He continued: "This was not a shallow plot. Behind it I believe are some of the biggest Cientificos who are fighting against the revolution. We will find out today if it is true that there are arms for 10,000 Cientificos as stated. For ten days this plot has hung over me and I have been unable to take an important step."

Madero says he does not believe Figueroa was connected in the plot but that his name was used to influence Rosco and Villjoen.

El Paso, Texas, May 29. — What is looked upon by Francisco I. Madero Jr. as a well laid plan to prevent his reaching Mexico City, to overthrow his leadership and to start a counter revolution against him was revealed here last night in the arrest of Daniel De Villars of Mexico City.

W. F. Dunn, an American, according to a telegram received by Madero's chief military adviser, was arrested in Monterey, Mexico, by a detective who had trailed him from El Paso.

The alleged plot involves certain sums of money which were to have been paid out to General Madero's military leaders, General Madero, according to the details given out by him, was fully advised of the scheme and allowed it to be encouraged. A ten days' trailing by detectives began.

The arrests followed an effort is believed to have been made on the part of certain members of the Cientifico party to overthrow General Madero. De Villars and Dunn for the last ten days, it is alleged, have been endeavoring to influence General Benjamin Villjoen, a citizen of the United States, who is chief military adviser to General Madero, and General Pascual Orozco to desert General Madero's standard.

Instead of yielding, the two chiefs have secretly encouraged the conspirators until evidence could be collected to make the arrests.

According to a telegram received here last night, Dunn was arrested in Monterey, Mexico, by order of General Madero. Dunn left here three days ago with the alleged purpose.

WRECK REPORTED ON THE BURLINGTON

Minden, Neb., May 29. — It is reported that several passengers were killed and 12 badly injured in a wreck at Indianola, Neb., this morning. Burlington passenger train No. 12, east bound, was switching, when west bound No. 9 ploughed into it. Five cars of the latter train were ditched.

No Details Official.
Chicago, May 29. — Officials of the Burlington road here confirmed the report of a wreck at Indianola, Neb., but said that no details had been reported and that no details had been received.

Chillicothe, May 29.—With the score standing 4 to 0 in its favor and with the good ship sailing serenely into the seventh channel of Sunday's farewell engagement with the Molders, Beebe lost his head when in sight of land, and, foundering for a time, sank beneath the waters before he could be rescued. Fans and fannettes by the score were present to see the Babes walk away with the last battle and the cyclone struck so suddenly that before many of them knew what was happening, the Molders had drawn up neck and neck with their much worshipped idols.

Beebe was given a good lead to work on in the early innings when by hard work with the stick the kidlets managed to boost four counters under the wire. That seventh proved to be a Jonah inning, however, and for a time it looked as though the visitors never would quit scoring. Prysock led off with a single and Longmore followed suit. Baggan fell, but after Newham had been passed up on four wide ones, Rudolph registered a double-jointed drive to right center and two invaders checked. Blue then cashed in his checks, but Munn was not so easy and his rap to right tied up the count.

And then, probably of the opinion that Babes had won plenty on this stay at home, Tom Kibler came back with a costly error in the eighth and the old game was gone to stay. Herold singled, went to second on Prysock's sacrifice and scored when Kibler kicked Newham's grounder half way into right field after Longmore had walked and Baggan had died in the net. This run settled the game for Longmore positively refused to loosen up after the first three chapters of the squabble. Several hard raps were wasted in those last few rounds, however, but they could not be made to count. The score:

UTICA SHUT OUT.

The Newark All Stars defeated the Utica High School Saturday afternoon on the Utica grounds. Both teams played well. Keller pitched great ball for Newark. Kilpatrick also pitched good ball, but was given poor support. The score was nothing to nothing in the ninth with three men on bases and Swisher hit the ball over the fence bringing all four runners in. Swisher starred in the game, getting a home run and two three-baggers. Score: Newark 4, Utica 0. Attendance—1,250. Umpire—Johanna.

HEROLD HURT IN SLIDE TO HOME PLATE

Third baseman Herold, one of the crack infielders of the Molders, sustained a fracture of one of the small bones of his ankle in the game Sunday afternoon at Chillicothe.

Herold, in a desperate attempt to score at the plate on a close play, slid in feet first. In some manner his foot was twisted and the bone snapped.

The injured player was assisted from the diamond and given surgical attention and later removed to his hotel. He accompanied the team back to Newark and was removed to his room.

The injury of Herold is the first bad luck of this nature which has overtaken the Newark team. Plenty of hoodoos have hung around the Molder camp since the opening of the season, but until Sunday the players had been free from serious injury.

It means that it will be four or five weeks before the crack little third sacker will be back in the game. McConnell utility man will probably play the position unless another infielder is secured.

Herold's place at third will be taken by Pitcher Cook who reported early in the season.

Portsmouth Takes Game.
LANCASTER, O., May 29.—Thomson was given poor support Sunday by Lancaster's infield, and Portsmouth walked off with one game of the series. The Lanke were unable to field bunts in the second and third innings, which the visitors took advantage of. Score:

TWO GAMES MEMORIAL DAY AT WEHRLE PARK
Newark and Portsmouth teams are in the city for a series of four games in two days. Two games are in progress this afternoon at Wehrle Park.

One game will be played Tuesday morning, commencing at 10 o'clock. The afternoon game will be called at 3 o'clock.

Portsmouth is striving hard to keep her lead in the State League and has met with obstacles at Lancaster and will probably meet with more before she finishes the trip just started.

Newark, on the other hand, is down in the race and is fighting hard to gain a better position. These four games will be bitterly contested. Newark will endeavor to crawl up a notch or two as a result of the pair of double headers.

Aside from Herold's injury, the team is in pretty fair shape for the series. The pitchers worked better at Chillicothe than for several days before, and although two games were dropped, both were close decisions, with the pitchers working splendidly. Memorial Day should see a good crowd at both games. The team needs the moral support of a good crowd to help them win.

C. M. A. TEAM WITH ATWOOD IN THE BOX EASILY WON SUNDAY GAME.

The C. M. A. team played an errorless game at Wehrle Park, Sunday afternoon, this being the first game of a double header, the second going to the Athertons with the M. C. Lilley team on the short end of the score.

The C. M. A. team easily defeated the Lancaster White Sox, Atwood being in good form. He allowed but five hits and struck out ten of the Lancaster sluggers.

Smeltz got his first chance at the third base position and made good, accepting four chances without a wobble and getting a line drive good for two bases.

Tomorrow the C. M. A. bunch goes to Mt. Vernon, where they will play two games with the ex-professional aggregation there. Cromley, Iger and Popham, two well known players with league experience, are members of the team and the Newark bunch expects a hard battle. Score:

ATHERTONS DEFEAT THE LILLEY TEAM

LOCAL AMATEURS WIN IN CLOSE GAME AT WEHRLE PARK SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

Yesterday at Wehrle Park, the Athertons defeated the M. C. Lilley team of Columbus by the score of 3 to 2. Although the Athertons were out-hit 2 to 1, they made their hits count. Allen pitched a nice game, striking out 7 men and getting a two-bagger. All Atherton players report at Atherton cigar store at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning for the trip to Coshocton. The score:

S.S.S. REMOVES THE CAUSE AND CURES CATARRH

Catarrh usually begins with irritated, inflamed membranes of the head, nose and throat, from which there is a constant and copious discharge of watery matter. This comes from inflammation of these mucous surfaces and is caused by catarrhal matters and impurities in the circulation. Nature intends that these membranes shall be

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Smith, one mile west of Homer, was the scene of a very pleasant social function last Saturday. The occasion was the 7th anniversary of Mrs. Smith's birthday. The day was spent in social conversation, and at noon a delicious dinner was served, to which all did ample justice. Those present, aside from the immediate family, were: Mr. and Mrs. J. P. De Crow, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Shipley and Mrs. J. J. Simmons of Appleton, and Mrs. L. L. Simmons and Mrs. Lewis Simmons of Columbus.

Mrs. Edward Kibler honors her guest, Miss Alice Wilson of New York city this afternoon at her home in the Granville road. Mrs. Kibler entertains with an informal tea.

Mrs. Eura Biggs very delightfully entertained the ladies of the Lark Club at dinner Thursday. Those present were: Mrs. Ella Layman and daughter Lulu, Mrs. Pearl Claggett, Mrs. Phoebe Houshelt, Mrs. Mollie Wilkin, Mrs. Ara Harris, Miss Minnie Layman and daughters Helen and Mary Catherine. The guests of the club were: Mrs. Bessie Wilkin and son Franklin, Mrs. Dollie Miller and son Floyd and daughter Mary Evelyn, Miss Ruth Wilkin, Ethel Miller, Mrs. Frank Dush of Albion, Mr. Rex Biggs and son Albert Byron.

Mrs. Daniel Altshool is entertaining at her home in Hudson avenue this afternoon with a bridge party. Mrs. Altshool compliments Mrs. C. W. Miller.

Mrs. Fred Wright entertained on Saturday afternoon with a pretty informal afternoon tea at her home on Eddy street. The beautiful grounds surrounding the Wright home never presented a more attractive appearance, and here and on the large porches light refreshments were served. Mrs. Wright honored Mrs. Kibler's guest, Miss Alice Wilson of New York city. Assisting the hostess were Miss Wilson, Miss Louise Forrell and Miss Frances Wright. Mrs. Wright's guests were: Mesdames James K. Hamill, James R. Fitzgibbon, Henry Buell, A. H. Pierson, Anne Hatch, Edward Kibler, Glover, Henry Gray, E. C. Wright, Misses Jessie Robbins, Mary Robbins, Sarah Puckingham, Grace Fulton, Mary Neal, Eva Vinsinger, Carrie Mosteller, Florence King, Edith Macky and Mrs. Meriam of Cleveland.

Pink and white in every conceivable place made a beautiful background for the pretty tea given on Saturday afternoon by Miss Gladys Beecher and Miss Eleanor Beecher at their home in West Church street. The Misses Beecher had as their honor guest Miss Corinne Miller.

The color scheme of pink and white was effected by the use of huge clusters of pink and white peonies and roses. The hours were from three to five o'clock and assisting the hostesses were Misses Spray, Douce, Berice Hatch, Louise Elliott, Catherine Sedgwick, Ruth Whitcomb, Mary Follett. Serving at the refreshment tables were Misses Vera, Douce, Dorothy Beard, Martha Wright, and Mildred.

Robe About fifty guests called during the afternoon.

The following girls will form a party to take a cottage at Buckeye Lake over Decoration Day, going to Buckeye Lake Park this evening: Misses Katherine Colihan, Leona Egan, Mame Dolan, Veronica Stare, Anna Stare, Katherine Shaughnessy, Mary Schaughnessy, Edith Kureth, Claire Kureth, Josephine Egan, Grace Egan, Mary Balzer and Mary Roach.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mackey and children left today for Buckeye Lake Park where they will spend the summer. Their home in Clinton street will be closed.

The Unitiv Sewing Circle met with Mrs. Pennick at her home in Central avenue, May 23. The evening was spent in sewing and sociable talk, after which a dainty luncheon was served to the members and following guests: Mrs. Keeran, Mrs. Edith Pennick, Hazel and Russell Rutherford, Helen McLaughlin, Daisy Steinman and Garnet and Violet Hurdell. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. McLaughlin at her home in Allen street June 6.

STEEL-NELL. Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, James W. Steel of Fulton avenue West Newark, and Miss Florence A. Nell, a young woman of East Newark were united in marriage by Rev. H. J. Holcomb, pastor of the West Main Street M. E. church, at the parsonage.

The couple was accompanied by the bridegroom's brother and wife. They will make their home for the present on Fulton avenue.

Cheese Fritters: Grate about two tablespoonfuls of Parmesan cheese (or any other rather strong cheese will do) into a basin, and mix with it one tablespoonful of finely grated bread crumbs, and a little pepper and salt. Break a couple of eggs into another basin and beat them well; add to them, gradually, the cheese and bread crumbs, and beat all well together. Have ready a frying pan, with a large lump of butter in it, and as soon as the butter boils, drop in the mixture from a dessert spoon in small cakes or fritters. Fry them a nice brown on both sides and serve very hot.
Fried Cream: In a double boiler scald one pint of milk, adding to it an inch of stick cinnamon. Beat together two eggs, add one-quarter of a cupful of cold milk, one tablespoonful of flour, two tablespoonfuls of corn starch, a quarter of a teaspoonful of salt and a half cupful of sugar. Add to this the scalded milk, first removing the cinnamon, mix together, return to the double boiler and cook for 15 minutes, stirring frequently. Lastly, add one teaspoonful of butter, two tablespoonfuls of blanched almonds chopped fine, and one teaspoonful of vanilla and pour into a shallow, square pan, which has been well greased. When cold and stiff, turn out on a board, cut it into strips and dip in slightly beaten egg, roll in fine dry bread crumbs, do this twice. To cook plunge into smoking hot, deep fat until golden brown. Drain on soft paper and dust with powdered sugar before serving.

HOW WEAK WOMEN

May Be Made Strong at Small Expense and No Risk.

There are hundreds of women in this vicinity, weak, thin, run-down, tired out and nervous. Such women need Vinol just as much as did Mrs. Jane Pepper, of 2307 Howard street, San Francisco, Cal., who says: "I have used Vinol for some time with particularly gratifying results. I was run-down, weak and debilitated, and my appetite was gone. After taking several bottles of Vinol I found my condition greatly improved, and do not hesitate to recommend Vinol to anyone similarly affected." (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

Vinol is not a secret nostrum, but a delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil which will create an appetite, tone up the digestive organs, make pure blood and create strength. Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. F. D. Hall, druggist, Newark, O.

Aeronauts Drop Into Town to Attend Divine Services After Journey of Sixty Miles.

Topsfield, Mass., May 20. — The balloon as a means of conveyance to church was utilized yesterday by Charles J. Glidden and J. J. Valkenburg, in a journey of 20 miles, from Lowell to this town. The aeronauts made an early morning ascension from Lowell, promising friends to land near a church and attend services. After floating before a west wind for an hour and a half two church spires were noted below. The balloon was brought down and struck ground 300 feet from the Methodist Episcopal church of Topsfield. The aeronauts waited until the hour of services and then joined the congregation. The pastor in his address referred to the fact that two of the congregation had dropped into the service from the skies.

Fairy Tale About Being Drugged and Brought to Newark

Columbus, O., May 20.—H. A. Spira, who last week lost his coat and hat on the Fifth street bridge in an effort to convince his wife he had committed suicide, made a real attempt yesterday and almost succeeded.
The day after his disappearance he returned, and told that he had been drugged and taken to Newark. He was locked up pending investigation, and yesterday in his cell he cut his throat with a razor.
He fazed until unconscious, and though the razor wound was exposed, he probably will recover.

OUR SOLDIER DEAD IN 84 CEMETERIES.

More Than 350,000 Heroes of Our War Are Buried in Graveyards Owned by the Government.

IN the palmy days of democratic Athens the bones of every citizen who perished in the service of his country were brought home to be buried in the Cemetimus. A day was appointed in the winter, when military operations were suspended, for the funeral. One of the noblest orations of antiquity—that attributed by Thucydides to Pericles—was delivered on such an occasion.

Modern nations build mausoleums for their great generals, but are usually content to allot only the hasty trench or ditch to the common soldier. The bones of British soldiers are scattered the world around.

To this rule of indifference as to the final resting place of obscure heroes the United States forms a shining and honorable exception. There are today eighty-four national cemeteries, which contained on June 10, 1900, the graves of 359,285 American soldiers and sailors.

The national cemeteries are mainly a result of the civil war. In September, 1861, the secretary of war by general order directed accurate and permanent records to be kept of deceased soldiers and their places of burial. The work was assigned to the quartermaster general's department. That department already had charge of the burial of officers and soldiers, but its care had ordinarily ended with the drifting smoke of the guns that were discharged over their graves.

By act of July 17, 1862, congress empowered the president to purchase cemetery grounds to be used for the burial of "soldiers who shall die in the service of their country." Such was the intensity of the great war that for some time no action was taken under that law.

Following the battle of Gettysburg Governor Curtin of Pennsylvania inaugurated a movement whereby several states purchased seven acres of ground embracing the center of the Union line and caused to be disinterred and reburied there the bodies of the soldiers who had been buried outside this area. The cemetery was dedicated by Lincoln, Nov. 19, 1863, in that perfect tribute to the "honored dead" who there "gave the last full measure of devotion." The cemetery was subsequently taken over by the nation.

In the summer of 1865 a force of men under Captain James Moore was sent to Andersonville to locate the grounds and provide headboards for each grave. They were able to identify 12,461 of the graves, leaving only 451 "unknown."

The eighty-four national cemeteries are divided according to importance into twenty-six first class, twenty second class, sixteen third class and twenty-two fourth class cemeteries. Those in the first class include Arlington, Andersonville, Antietam, Carlisle, Chattanooga, Nashville, Gettysburg, Fort Sumner, Fredericksburg, Jefferson Barracks, Shiloh and Vicksburg.

In the number of monuments that at Arlington stands first, with 21,103.

That at Antietam is a rather close second, with 16,592. The Nashville cemetery is third, with 14,691.

Arlington is generally known, formerly being the wife of General Robert E. Lee. Mrs. Lee was a daughter of George Washington Parke Custis, who was a grandson of Martha Washington. The story has been told, whose class "Columbus have been seen by every eye" of the Washington city, was favored by her, and at the time break of the civil war it was the Lee home. Lee, then a colonel in the United States army, wrote his resignation there April 20, 1861. Two days later he quitted his beautiful home forever to accept command of the military forces of his state.

Overlooking as it does the Potomac and the capital, a more beautiful spot could scarcely be imagined. Magnificent old oaks shade its glades and knolls, and art has perfected what nature left undone. The cemetery contains the tombs of Logan, Sheridan, Lawton and other noted generals.

One of the most interesting national cemeteries is that on Custer's battle field in Montana. The story of how the dashing yellow haired young man, general and every man of five companies of the Seventh cavalry lost their lives in battle with the Sioux, June 25, 1876, is known to every one. The smallest national cemetery is that at Ball's Bluff, Va. It is on the site of the battlefield of that name, fought in 1861. It is only fifty feet square and is situated on a large bluff overlooking the upper Potomac. It contains the graves of one known and twenty-four unknown soldiers.

GENERAL SHERIDAN'S MONUMENT IN ARLINGTON.

NOT IN THE TACTICS.

General Hardee's Encounter With a Witty Scrapper.

While on a forced march in some of the army movements in Mississippi General Hardee came upon a straggler. The general ordered him forward, when the soldier replied that he was weak and broken down, not even having had half rations for several days.

"That's hard," said General Hardee, "but you'll have to catch up with your regiment just the same or the provost sergeant will take you in hand."

The soldier looked up at the general and said:

"Ain't you General Hardee?"

"Yes," answered the general.

"Didn't you write Hardee's tactics?"

"Yes."

"Well, general, I've studied them tactics and know 'em by heart. You've got an order that to double column at half distance, ain't you?"

"Ain't," asked the general, "what has that to do with your case?"

"I'm a good soldier, general, and obey all that it is possible to obey, but if you'll show me an order in your tactics or anybody else's tactics to double distance on half rations I'll give in."

The general, with a hearty laugh, admitted that there were no tactics to meet the situation and, putting spurs to his horse, rode forward.

Found the Word.

The late Thomas Lowry of Minneapolis was a great wit and a great story teller as well as a great financier. He needed $1,000,000 one time for one of his railroad enterprises, and he went to New York to get it. On the morning of his arrival a friend met him at the hotel and asked, "What are you doing, Tom?"

"I am going downtown to get $1,000,000."

"Can you do it?"

"My boy," said Lowry impressively, "in the high lexicon of youth there is no such word as fail."

That night Lowry came back to his hotel after a hard day. The same friend met him. "Did you get the million?" he asked.

"No," replied Lowry. "I didn't. I owned that bright lexicon of youth, and the word was in it."—Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Indigestion Preventive.
 By thoroughly masticating food indigestion may be prevented or cured. The saliva acts upon food material and converts the starchy elements into sugar, which can then be assimilated into the blood.

The last edition of the Commoner, W. J. Bryan's paper, contains a first page article, strongly endorsing the campaign inaugurated by State Treasurer Creamer, for a law providing for the deposit of federal money under the competitive bidding plan. "The plan ought to be adopted by the United States government and Mr. Creamer has rendered the public another service by writing letters to the Ohio Democratic members in congress requesting them to vote for the competitive bidding bill," says the Commoner. "Mr. Creamer is certainly entitled to congratulations upon his good effort and his example should be imitated by others in authority."

The interests that are supplying the money to fight the reciprocity pact have been using the tariff law to rob the farmers. The exigency of the time has made strange bed fellows. In this case the lion induced the lamb to lie down with him. If the interests fighting reciprocity are good friends of the farmers, why are they indifferent over the fate of a bill which will take the tax off of nearly everything the farmers use?

MOST LOVERS DEAL IN VOW AND SIGH.

The youth before the maiden bows; her life he'd like to cherish; he springs a catalogue of vows for her he'd gladly perish. Most lovers deal in vow and sigh, and all kinds of emotion, and tell how cheerfully they'd die, to show their deep devotion. Ah, love, my fellow-men, has wings, and soars to stellar glories, and maidens, sweet, romantic things, believe all sorts of stories. They ought to put the lid on vows, and interrupt the sighing, and softly say: "Nixumarrow!" What is the use of dying? You say you love me fifty ways, and I admire you fairish, but would it gladden my days if you should go any perish? Get down to large brass tacks, dear soul, for vows are cheap and spindling; will you supply the house with coal, and pack in all the kindling? Will you on washday not repine, or breathe of fire and slaughter, but help to hang things on the line, and lug in tubs of water? And when the butcher knife is blunt, will you be prompt to sharpen it? And will you do a sweeping stunt, and beat the parlor carpet? And will you set the table, dear, while the meat is frying? Now, make your attitude quite clear, and can this talk of dying?

Atlee Pomerene has been in the United States senate but a few weeks and yet has done more good for the people than Senator Dick did in six years. Senator Pomerene is the author of a bill providing for the awards of federal money to banks under the competitive bidding plan—a measure which, if enacted, would increase the revenues of Uncle Sam $3,000,000 a year. Senator Pomerene's latest move was the introduction of a resolution asking the department of justice to bring criminal proceedings against officers and directors of the Standard Oil company, which was recently found guilty of violating the Sherman anti-trust law. Senator Pomerene's doctrine is that the criminal laws apply to the poor as well as to the rich, and the people of Ohio approve this resolution and applaud his good work.

The esteemed Cleveland Leader by the way a Republican newspaper, says the general assembly did right in emasculating the Edwards tax commission bill which was designed to assist in making the 1 per cent tax law a success, and also to put tax Dodgers out of business. In opposing the Edwards bill the Cleveland Leader will have the support of all tax Dodgers, but the great army of owners of tangible property will not look with favor on the Leader's stand.

During the seven years of Roosevelt's administration and the more than two years that Taft has held the reins of the federal government 99,000 new positions were created. This explains why it was easy for certain gentlemen to control Republican national conventions, and it shows why the American government has grown to be the most expensive in the world in proportion to population.

Taft's boom for ex-president of the United States is sweeping the country. Voters in every state of the Union are hustling to get into the band wagon. In this race for the ex-presidency of the United States, Taft will have no opposition, and he will make a remarkable run for that honor.

AUTO PARTY

Instantly Killed When Electric Car, Hid by Clump of Trees, Dashed Into Machine.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 29.—Jerry Kauffmann, of Long Beach; three members of his family, and W. S. Hollingsworth of Denver, were killed at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon when a city-bound Pacific electric car from Whittier dashed into their automobile as it attempted to cross the tracks near that town. Three of the occupants of the automobile were instantly killed and two others died while being conveyed to a hospital. The third passenger in the automobile lies in a hospital, probably fatally injured.

A clump of trees near the intersection tracks obscured the approaching car, and the two vehicles met at terrific speed. The automobile was completely demolished, the electric car hurling it into a waiting station, which was also wrecked.

THE LITTLE UNION BUSHWHACKER'S NERVE.

By CAPTAIN F. A. MITCHELL.

MRS. STARKWEATHER, living in middle Tennessee during the civil war, was a Union woman to the core. Her husband was killed by secessionists before hostilities began, leaving her very bitter against them. Her son, Tom Starkweather, was fourteen years old when his father was killed, and he made a boyish vow that he would never miss a chance to kill a secessionist. He found no opportunity to do so until after the war opened. Then at fifteen he began the work of revenge.

He would waylay his enemies and shoot them from behind trees, the regular bushwhacking method during wartime. One by one he picked off all of those who had been instrumental in his father's death.

In those days there were bands of partisan rangers in Kentucky and Tennessee, unenlisted, ununiformed men who fought for the Confederacy on their own hook, which meant that some of them were murderers and pillagers. These men were a special object of Tom's antipathy. A band led by one Bennett, made up in the region where he lived, lost so many men, whose deaths were traced to Tom, that they were anxious to get their hands on the boy.

Tom and another Union boy, Sam Parks, were a good deal together. Tom would do the shooting, and Sam would do the watching. But Sam was unknown by their enemies as having anything to do with the matter, Tom always taking the blame.

One day Bennett's band came into the district where the boys lived, and they went out hunting the rangers for their scalps. By this time Tom was known as the little Union bushwhacker, and Bennett had determined that if he ever caught him he would put an end to his shooting his men from behind trees. While the men were riding along a road one of them dropped behind. Tom, who was concealed in the woods, shot him. Then the two boys ran for Tom's home as fast as their legs could carry them.

Bennett, hearing the shot, galloped back and found his man badly wounded. He told his chief that he had probably been shot by the little Union bushwhacker, Bennett, surmising that Tom would go home after calling to his men to take care of the one disabled, rode straight for Mrs. Starkweather's cabin. Fearing that the boys would be followed, she hid them.

TOM, WHO WAS CONCEALED IN THE WOODS, SHOT HIM.

When Bennett rode up and asked for Tom she told him that her son was not at home. But this did not satisfy the partisan leader, and he made a thorough search of the premises, with the result that both boys were dragged from behind a wood pile in a shed.

"Which of you boys is the little Union bushwhacker?" asked the captain.

Neither boy replied. Bennett asked the woman, threatening to shoot her if she did not reply.

"You don't suppose I'd tell you uns on my own son, would you, to get him killed as his father was?"

The captain thought a moment, then said to her:

"You stand up there with your face again the woodshed."

The woman did as directed, which brought her back to the boys. Bennett handed each of them a revolver and said to them:

"When I give the order you two fire. The one that doesn't or misses I'm going to shoot right down."

This was rather a crude method of detecting which was the woman's son, but it was the best the captain could call up at the moment. He expected to judge by the flinching of the one who was required to fire at his own mother.

SHOT HIM THROUGH THE FOREHEAD. Weapon to bear on Bennett and shot him through the forehead.

Mrs. Starkweather turned and, seeing the captain gasping his last breath, said quickly:

"Come, my boy; we must get out of this in a hurry. Sam, you go home. Nobody knows of your being mixed up in this fracas."

Without stopping even to return to the house she and Tom dashed off in one direction, while Sam went in another. The mother and son disappeared in a wood. At the same moment half a dozen horsemen belonging to the band, who, having heard the shooting, galloped after their captain, appeared up the road. When they reached the Starkweather cabin they found it deserted and Bennett lying dead.

They at once scattered to hunt for his slayer, but Tom knew of a hole in the ground overlying with bushes into which he and his mother descended, and the searchers missed them. When the hunt was given up they left their hiding place and made their way into the Union lines.

Oldest Veteran Dead.

William Macabee, believed to have been the oldest veteran of the civil war and one of the oldest persons in this country, has died since last Memorial day. He passed away at the United States Naval home in Philadelphia, where he had been an inmate for thirty years. He celebrated his one hundred and seventh birthday on Sept. 22, when he was able to sit up and receive the congratulations of his friends and tell of many of his experiences in the navy.

Macabee entered the service of the United States when a lad, serving on the frigate Constitution until it was retired from service. He remained in the naval service until he went to the home where he died.

Dinner Stories

An Englishman, an Irishman and a Scotsman were represented as looking through a confectioner's window at a beautiful young lady serving in the shop.

"Oh," exclaims Mr. Patrick, "do let us be after spending half a crown with the dear creature that we may look at her more conveniently, and have a bit of chat with her."

"You extravagant dog," says Mr. George. "I am sure one-half of it would do just as well. But let us go in by all means. She is a charming girl."

"Ah, wait a wee," interposed Mr. Andrew. "Dinna ye ken it'll serve our purpose just as well to ask the bonnie lassie to give us two exposures for a shilling and inquire where Mr. Thompson's house is and sit like? We're no hungry, and may as well save the shilling."

A traveler in the mountains in a Southern state found a man cultivating a crop on Sunday morning.

"Friend," said the traveler, "don't you know this is Sunday?"

"Is it?" asked the man. "I plumb forgot; but," he hurried on, "I might 'a' knowned, for I remember when they introduced Sunday down here."

Dr. Victor Kutchek, of Milwaukee, tells about a collie dog, which he brought from a German family, in the course of a lecture before the Social Economics Club.

"The dog was like some college students I have heard tell of," says the doctor. "He could understand German perfectly but he couldn't speak it."

SPLENDID MUSICAL RECITAL IN OBSERVANCE OF FOUNDERS' DAY AT DENISON UNIVERSITY

Excellent Program Carried Out Honoring Mrs. E. S. Shepardson, Former Principal of the Y. L. I.—Girls' Carnival Draws a Large Crowd to the Campus—Everything in Readiness for Exercises During Commencement Week.

Granville, May 29.—For several years past one of the most important features in connection with the commencement of Denison has been the observance of Founders' Day, commemorating the history of Denison and two years ago the evening of Founders' Day was devoted to Dr. Shepardson, and the story of his life work, so beautifully set forth by his son, Dr. E. W. Shepardson of the University of Chicago.

This year the evening of Founders' Day was devoted to a musical recital given in honor of Dr. Shepardson's wife, Mrs. E. S. Shepardson, now of Boston, Mass., who for many years was the capable, versatile lady principal of the old Y. L. I., and who is now slowly recovering from the shock of her daughter's death last March. Mrs. Shepardson's accomplishments were many and varied but chief among them was her gift of song and the possession of a glorious voice. For twenty years she was the leader of the Baptist choir, and was instrumental in developing many a latent musical talent. This year the committee deemed it fitting to dedicate an entire musical evening to her and an attractive program was prepared which was carried out in the evening in Recital Hall.

At an early hour in the evening the people began arriving and in a short time Recital Hall was filled to its utmost capacity. The delightful program which was opened by the singing of a beautiful number, an invocation by Prof. W. A. Chamberlin, was as follows:

Denison Glee Club

The singing of the Shepardson Glee club was greatly enjoyed by the large audience. All the numbers rendered by the club were exceedingly fine and showed most conclusively that the members of the club are possessed of much talent, showing not only the magnificent music, but the skill and wonderful execution of the performers under the direction and instruction of their teacher.

Dean Loveridge of Shepardson college then gave a brief but exceedingly interesting history of Mrs. E. S. Shepardson, recalling her many beautiful traits of character; of the great interest she had always taken in everything religious and educational in the village, and of her pride in all its civic improvements. The talk was greatly appreciated by all, especially by those who have long been acquainted with Mrs. Shepardson. It was a fitting testimonial to the worth and goodness of the woman who has done so much for Granville and her educational interests.

The singing of Miss Cox was a revelation. She has a rich soprano voice, and has learned the management of her voice so as to use it to the best ability and express herself in song. Her numbers were given with a style which made it a delight. She was given a most enthusiastic encore by the audience.

The bright particular stars of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Amor W. Sharp of Columbus, who gave one of the most enjoyable song recitals ever heard in Granville. They have voices of fine quality, bass and soprano, and their singing met with general approval from the large audience as was evinced by the rounds of applause that followed each number.

Their singing evidenced thorough musical ability, and a rare gift of interpretation, and this added to their fine presence and charming personality held the audience spell bound. They were recalled several times, but as the program was of sufficient length they did not respond.

Both Mrs. Sharp and Miss Cox received a tribute of beautiful flowers. In the arrangement of the entire program of charming melody, no one could have been better pleased than Mrs. Shepardson, herself, had she been present to hear it.

Surely, music hath charms, and that the melodies rendered had touched the hearts of the audience, was evidenced at the close of the entertainment, when a most delightful reception was held in Stone Hall at which a large number attended, all being anxious to meet the sweet singers, and it was a great pleasure to meet them. In the receiving line were Dean Loveridge, Mr. and Mrs. Sharp, Miss Cox, Mrs. Burton Case, Mrs. J. R. Davies and Mrs. Hines.

SHEPARDSON GIRLS CARNIVAL.

With the beautiful weather that prevailed Saturday afternoon the girls of Shepardson College were in their glory. Had the choice been left to them a more delightful or beautiful day could not have been selected for their carnival. Early in the afternoon visitors began arriving on the beautiful campus grounds for the purpose of attending the exercises, and when the program started at 2 o'clock there was a large crowd, more so in fact than on any previous occasion, to enjoy the festivities. Promptly at 2 o'clock the grand march started from the gymnasium. During the afternoon each class was represented in costume dances, tennis or races, and several records were broken.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR OLD SOLDIERS.

Exceedingly beautiful and solemnly impressive memorial services were held in the Baptist church here Sunday evening in memory of the honored soldiers of Granville and vicinity, who have answered the last trumpet call.

Quite a number of the members of Lemert Post No. 71, G. A. R. to which the old soldiers of Granville are attached, came up to the village at an early hour in the evening and repaired to the Town Hall, where they joined quite a number of the members of Lemert Post No. 71, G. A. R., to which the old soldiers of Granville are attached, came up to the village at an early hour in the evening and repaired to the Town Hall where they joined the old soldiers of Granville, and marched to the Baptist church where they took the seats that had been reserved for them.

By seven o'clock the appointed hour number of people had assembled to enjoy the impressive ceremonies.

The pulpit and altar were beautifully decorated with the National colors.

After the singing of a beautiful hymn and prayer, the Rev. A. Ramsey, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, delivered a most excellent sermon, which was a masterly one throughout, showing his extensive knowledge of history.

His address was not only instructive as to our government, but his reference to the old soldiers who will soon hear their last roll call was pleasant rather than serious. In fact the entire discourse was most pleasing and instructive.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS MEMORIAL.

The annual Knights of Pythias memorial services were held in the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, by the members of Altamaha lodge, assisted by quite a number from Newark.

The Knights, several hundred in number, headed by the Granville band, and Licking company U. R. K. P. of Newark, marched from the K. P. hall to the church, where they took their seats in the body of the edifice, that had been reserved for them. Mr. E. S. Hopkins was chairman of the meeting and after singing and invocation by Prof. C. L. Williams, the pastor, Rev. J. T. Newell delivered the address, which was an eloquent and feeling eulogy of those in whose memory the memorial service was held.

The subject of Rev. Mr. Newell's sermon was based on the second verse of Isaiah xxxii, "And a man shall be a hiding place for the mind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadows of a great rock in a weary land."

It was a sermon that appealed to every knight present and served to strengthen the brotherly love of the members of the lodge. The lodge needs the church for the help it may give in the spiritual welfare of its members, and the church needs the lodges for the material welfare of the sick and needy who cannot be taken care of through the medium of the church or the church has its means of knowing whom it is helping.

The Knights marched to Maple Grove cemetery where the graves of the dead of the order were covered with beautiful flowers.

The music at the church was furnished by Carl Ashton and Mrs. Dr. Rohrer. The solo by Mrs. Rohrer was a very beautiful one, and the duet,

"Rock of Ages," by Mr. Ashton and Mrs. Rohrer was beautifully rendered.

While considering a number of things that might improve the civic beauty of the town and add to its health, why not consider the proposition of washing the sidewalks in the business section of the town every morning? It is possible to see the evidence of tobacco chewers having been busy on the sidewalks in the morning. Several of the business men, with commendable forethought, have the sidewalks in front of their stores washed off every morning. It would be a good plan for all to follow. The expense would not amount to much, and it certainly would add to the cleanliness of the town.

On invitation of Superintendent J. R. Clements, Hon. M. R. Scott of Newark, delivered a patriotic address to the schools on Monday, May 29.

Of late there have been some complaints in regard to the rapid running of automobiles on the public highways. The public roads are made primarily for the use of the land owners, and they should always have precedence over the mere pleasure seekers.

Country people should not forget that flowers delivered Tuesday morning will be most acceptable to the old soldiers.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Davenport of Washington county, Pa., are expected to arrive here this week to remain until after the commencement of Denison university.

Miss Elizabeth Zollers of Dayton, O., who has been visiting friends in the village for a few days, has returned home.

Quite a number of Newark people came up to the village Saturday evening and attended "Founders' Day" celebration in Recital Hall.

One of the largest Saturday night crowds that has been up in Granville for a long time, surged up and down Broadway, in the business district of the town Saturday night. The Granville Band, which has a splendid repertoire of music, gave another one of its fine concerts, the excellent music being listened to by hundreds of our people. There is not in any community a man from whom so much is expected for nothing as the village bandman. He is supposed to turn out and make music in all sorts of occasions, giving up his earnings to service, his holidays to performances, and being rewarded with votes of thanks and an occasional plate of sandwiches. Too often he works for nothing and boards himself. Give the band boys their due.

On next Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock will be given the graduating piano recital of Miss Edwyl Minerva Redding, at Recital Hall, and on Friday evening, June 8, at 8 o'clock, will be given the Senior Recital by the graduating class of the Conservatory of Music.

There have been some complaints about boys and girls pulling flowers from yards.

C. L. (Doc) Freeman, who is now with Denison University, will take complete charge of athletics at Ohio University at Athens next year.

Picnic time is now at hand and the society editor will be kept busy during the summer months writing about the various frolics and picnics in Granville and vicinity. The reunions of families also is a feature which will be popular before long. During the next two weeks class parties and reunions will be in vogue.

Miss Marjorie Minton will arrive here this week from her home in Westfield, N. J., and will be the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Case.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Sharp of Columbus, have been the guests of Bryn Du farm during the past several days. Mr. and Mrs. Sharp are artists of high rank and took part in the Founders' Day celebration Saturday evening.

Following is the program for the alumni meeting to be held on Wednesday afternoon of commencement week: Invocation by Dr. E. W. Hunt. Reading minutes of last meeting. Reports of Secretary-Treasurer and President. Miscellaneous business adjournment.

HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.

All the arrangements are now completed for the annual commencement of the Granville High school, which is to be held at the Opera House on Thursday evening, June 8 at eight o'clock. There are thirteen graduates as follows: Pearl Bishop, Charles Belt, Cleveland Belt, Eva Carpenter, Claire Geach, Barclay Hill, Lotta Lake, Ruth McGaughey, Pauline Eugene Smith, Louise Thompson, Ronald Wooles, Eva Wright.

The members of the class who will deliver orations are as follows: Charles Belt, "The City as it is and is to be." Eva Carpenter, "Unseen Workers." Claire Geach, "Jane Adams and the Hull House." Ruth McGaughey, "The Poor Rich and the Rich Poor." Eugene Smith, "The Panama Canal." Louis Thompson, "Sidney Laurier." Ronald Wooles, "The Ladder of Success." Eva Wright, "Buried Treasures."

The music for the occasion will be furnished by the Fourth Regiment Orchestra of Columbus.

The baccalaureate sermon will be preached by the Rev. F. M. Evans, at the Opera House, on Sunday evening, June 4, at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. H. R. Wood of Taunton, Mass., brother of Prof. and Mrs. Paige Wood of the Conservatory is here for the commencement season, also to attend the wedding of her son and Miss Winters at Columbus on June 14. She will be with Mrs. Mitchell on East Broadway.

DANDRUFF, FALLING HAIR STOPPED

Harmless, Old-Fashioned Remedy Brings Back Color to Gray Hair and Makes It Grow.

How many old-fashioned remedies are being used, which goes to show that it is hard to improve some of our grandmothers' old-time tried remedies. For instance, for keeping the hair dark, soft and glossy nothing equals our grandmothers' "sage tea." Although, by the addition of sulphur and other ingredients, this old-fashioned brew has been made more effective as a scalp tonic and color restorer.

Nowadays, when our hair comes out or gets faded or gray, instead of going to the garden or garret for herbs and making the "tea" ourselves, we simply go to the nearest drug store and ask for a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy.

Druggists are authorized to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

BRISTOW IS ALWAYS DOING SOMETHING

Senator Joseph L. Bristow, of Kansas, is one of the busiest men in the upper house of Congress, and when there is anything "stirring" he is sure to be in the thick of it.

There is one preparation that gives universal satisfaction.

"After nearly 40 years of pharmaceutical practice and coming in contact with most of the remedies on the market for the relief of headache, it gives me pleasure to say that I have met with nothing that has offered me so much satisfaction in selling, and has met with such universal approval as Hoffman's Headache Powders."

This abstract was taken from a letter written by Dr. C. B. Emerson, of Haverhill, Mass., one of the oldest, best known and most conservative New England pharmacists.

Where Hoffman's Headache Powders are known, they are as staple as quinine, why? Because they never fail to relieve, are free from opium, quinine, bromide or narcotics—therefore, have no disagreeable after-effects. Ask T. J. Evans or any other up-to-date druggist for a 10 or 25 cent package. Your money back if not satisfied.

THE FLAG OF FIFTY YEARS AGO

Fifty years ago the Seventh New York Regiment marched past 432 Lafayette street, New York, where two young women, the Misses Fahmy and Louise Wadsworth, hung out a flag in honor of the young men going to the war. On the fiftieth anniversary of that event this year the aged survivors of the Seventh rode past the same house in carriages, and the same women, still unmarried and still living there, hung out the identical flag (at top of picture).

NEXT MURDER CASE

That of Ed. Woolard, Which Has Been Fixed to Commence June 19.

A special venire for a jury to try case of State of Ohio vs. Edward Woolard on June 19, was left with the Clerk of Court Monday afternoon. Woolard is charged with first degree murder in the lynching case.

Tickling a Hippo.

"Come here and I'll scratch your tongue, Caliph," a visitor to the Central park menagerie heard the keeper say to the young hippopotamus.

The visitor hadn't expected that the hippo understood English, but apparently he did. He came up to the edge of the tank, opened his jaws a yard or so and waited. The keeper put his hand into the open mouth and tickled the animal's tongue with the ends of his fingers.

"That's the way to make a hippo love you," said the keeper. "They like to be tickled, just as a cat likes to have you stroke its back. Caliph wouldn't close his mouth on my arm, and I know I am taking no risk. They are the most amiable big beasts in the world, and I would trust them more than I would an elephant."

Daddy's Bedtime Story

Florence Nightingale Was Nurse Even As Little Girl

"OUR teacher was telling us today about Florence Nightingale," said Evelyn as she snuggled under the coverlid. "Wasn't she a simply wonderful woman?"

"She was, my dear," answered daddy; "so wonderful that the king of England gave her the Order of Merit, one of the greatest distinctions in the world. But of all the stories I have read about her the ones I like best are those that tell of her when she was a little girl like you."

"Oh, please tell me, daddy," cried Evelyn.

"Perhaps the nicest one," said daddy, "is about a dog she saved from being hanged. She was out riding one morning on her little pony with her tutor—that is a private teacher, you know—and they came across an old friend of theirs, a shepherd named Andrew, who seemed to be in trouble about keeping his flock together."

"What is the matter, Andrew?" asked the tutor.

"Please, your honor," answered Andrew, "I've lost my dog Cap. Some boys hit him on the leg with a stone two days ago, and he's lying now in the house in such pain that I've got to go home tonight and hang him to put him out of his misery. And he was the finest dog that ever lived!" And here the poor old shepherd broke down and cried.

"Well," said little Florence, "I can't bear to think of dear old Cap being killed. Mr. Jackson and I will ride over to your cottage and see what we can do."

"So they rode over, and there was poor Cap with his left hind leg swollen to the size of an elephant's and moaning in his pain. He let Mr. Jackson and Florence feel it, although it must have hurt him terribly, and they found that no bones were broken. So they heated some water and tore up Florence's apron for bandages and then fixed up the wounded limb."

"All that day Florence sat by him, making new bandages every little while, and when the shepherd came home at sunset, ready to kill his faithful chum, he found him able to limp around and with all the look of pain gone out of his big brown eyes."

"So you see, my dearies, that it was no wonder that when she grew up and heard of the sufferings of the wounded soldiers in the campaign of the Crimea she went to the hospitals herself and founded the beautiful institution known as the Red Cross today."

"I think she was braver than a soldier," said Jack.

"Jack," said daddy, "that's the cleverest remark you have ever made."

The Hay Crop.
It is reported that in some sections the hay and pasture situation is in bad shape and unless the weather is unusually seasonable the outlook is anything but encouraging. It is gradually dawning upon the farmers that they cannot sell both timothy hay and straw from the farm without exhausting the fertility of the land, and that when a hill field is well set in either blue grass or timothy, it is profitable to keep the plow out of it.

The Wright car, a late model Maxwell, was badly damaged.

THE TIME LIMIT NEARING ITS END

Marietta College Must Secure Balance of Fund by June 1.

COMMITTEES WORKING HARD

Shortness of Period Remaining to Secure the Conditional Gift For Endowment Fund of the College Has Caused the Friends of the Institution to Redouble Their Efforts. Ohio's Debt to Marietta.

As the time limit of the conditional gifts for the endowment fund of Marietta College draws near, the interest and activity and anxiety are intensified in the little city in southeastern Ohio. By June first the College must pay its debts and secure the balance of $800,000 in cash or pledges in order to obtain the $800,000 offered by the General Education Board and the $25,000 promised by Mr. Carnegie.

The education committee of the Board of Trade has taken hold of the matter and through a large and representative committee is endeavoring to secure $15,000 from the city in addition to several large gifts already made by individuals. On Sunday, May 21, almost all the ministers of Marietta presented the matter from their pulpits, and again on last Sunday further reference was made to it and pledges taken. The shortness of time now remaining has made the friends of the College anxious lest the enterprise fail, which would be a great disaster. So efforts are redoubled as June 1 approaches. Representatives of the College are also soliciting funds in other places, notably New York and Chicago.

Ohio's Debt to Marietta.
The foundations of the State of Ohio, as indeed of all the states of the Northwest Territory, were laid at Marietta in 1788. President Taft has said "The movement to settle Marietta and Ohio by the Ohio Company was at the same time the cause and effect of the adoption of the greatest instrument of fundamental law, except the Constitution of the United States, which has ever been enacted by man. It is quite clear that but for the energy of Dr. Manasseh Cutler and his associates, the Ordinance of 1787 would not have been enacted, and even if enacted, might not have contained some of the provisions which give it its chief elements of greatness."

It was these same pioneers also who in 1797, by the founding of Muskingum Academy, began higher education in this state. Marietta College is an outgrowth of that old Muskingum Academy, although it did not receive its present College charter until 1855. What Ohio owes to this early group can best be paid through this institution which ministers so splendidly to the youth of Ohio in all the generations.

The Field of Marietta College.
There are a great many Colleges in Ohio, but one who consults the map will see that most of them are in the northern part of the state. In the great Valley of the Ohio Marietta stands as the only College of high grade holding to the Christian ideal. It is greatly needed there and is doing a conspicuous service. It is a growing institution.

Alumni.
Of the 1,000 alumni, 225 entered the ministry, 146 have been lawyers, 148 teachers, 80 physicians, 40 journalists, 56 have held office in state and nation, nine have been college presidents and 54 professors. During the Civil War its graduates and students enlisted in large numbers, and on the foreign mission field many have served with distinction.

Some Testimonies to Its Worth.
General Stewart L. Woodford: "There is a great work to be done by these small colleges, and when such a college maintains a high standard of scholarship its influence is almost beyond expression. I am glad to see that Marietta College ranks very high in its percentage of scholarship."

Dr. Albert Shaw of the Review of Reviews: "This fortunate admixture of work and play in the consistent atmosphere of a true American College, dominated by the high ideal and unbroken tradition of those splendid people who founded the commonwealth, is what you have had here in Marietta, and what your successors will continue to have."

President W. O. Thompson of Ohio State University: "Among the Colleges organized in Ohio, perhaps no other one has been so true to the ideals of the original founders as Marietta. Its aim was to be thoroughly Christian while nonsectarian, to select its own board of management, and to perpetuate its own ideals of a College through the service of sympathetic and intelligent men."

Professor Edwin A. Grosvenor, National President of Phi Beta Kappa: "Marietta College was founded by men broad-minded sturdy, steadfast in performance of the present duty, sublime in faith and prayer. In this College have ministered and minister still great teachers, rich in scholarly experience and learning."

Marietta College has faith that her friends and the friends of higher education will not fail her in this emergency.

What This Denouement Implies to the Whole World.

CARL RUSSELL

Boston, May 28th.—Pastor Russell preached twice here today. He had large and intellectual audiences as usual.

We report one of his discourses from the text, "I go to prepare a place for you; . . . and I will come again and receive you unto myself, that where I am there ye may be also" (John xiv, 2, 3). The speaker said:—

Doubtless we all have in mind the fact that we have just passed the anniversary of our Redeemer's ascension to the right hand of the Father—to the highest place in all the Universe, next to the Almighty Father. He ascended up where He was before—to the spirit plane of being, with added excellence of glory and honor, the reward of His faithfulness and obedience to the Father's will, even to the sacrifice of His life at Calvary. He ascended, the Scriptures declare, from the more humble condition of human nature, a little lower than the angels, to the exalted condition of the divine nature—far above angels, principalities and powers and every name that is named.

The work for which the Logos left the heavenly glory has not yet been accomplished. He has suffered, the Just for the unjust, giving His life a ransom-price for all; but this was merely a means toward an end, and that end has not yet been accomplished—the blessing of Adam and his fallen race. Thank God, however, that the great, broad foundation has been laid. Thanks be to God also that a great preliminary work has been in progress during more than eighteen centuries since His ascension. That preliminary work is the preparation of the Church of Christ to follow Him in faithfulness and self-sacrifice to exaltation with Him to the divine nature, glory, honor and immortality, which was His reward (II Peter i, 4).

A Chaste Virgin Espoused.

If, in times past, we have too carefully studied our Bibles and confused God's special blessing for the Church, as the Bride of Christ, with His subsequent blessing for the world through Messiah and His Bride, let us do so no longer. Let us note that as the Divine Plan for the salvation of the world could not begin before the coming of Jesus, except in a typical sense, neither can it begin to operate until the complete selection of the Church—until her perfecting as the "Bride, the Lamb's Wife," in the First or Chief Resurrection.

The antitypical sacrifices which Jesus began still continue to be offered by Him. Those desirous of becoming His Bride and joint-heirs with Him in His Kingdom are now qualifying for that exaltation. The invitation to them is that, renouncing sin and accepting the Savior, they shall present their bodies living sacrifices, holy and acceptable to God—following in the footsteps of their Redeemer.

In a certain sense this presentation of the entire Church took place, representatively, in the Apostles and others of the five hundred brethren who believed at the first. They were representatives of the entire Church, and the acceptance of their sacrifice and their begetting of the Holy Spirit, their espousal at Pentecost, represented the acceptance, the begetting and espousal of the entire Church from then until now. We are merely following in their steps; we are merely undermembers in the same Body—"The Church of the first-born, whose names are written in heaven" (Hebrews xii, 23).

St. Paul distinctly points out that the Church is not yet the Bride of Christ, but merely espoused. He writes, "I have espoused you as a chaste virgin unto one Husband, who is Christ." The period of espousal will not be complete until the close of this Age, when the last member of the Body shall have been accepted, and when the First or Chief Resurrection (to the spirit plane) shall have been accomplished—the marriage or complete union between Christ and His Bride in the heavenly glory.

The Way and the Place.

As the Redeemer was the first to ascend to the glorious station of the divine nature, far above angels, principalities and powers, and as the Church is to be His associate in this glory, it was necessary that he should precede her to prepare the way. Our Lord's own worthiness of exaltation to the divine nature was witnessed by the Father in that He raised Him from the dead, a quickening spirit to glory, honor and immortality. . . . But before the Church could, in any sense of the word be made acceptable in heavenly courts it was necessary that the Redeemer should "appear in the presence of God for us" (Hebrews ix, 24). It was necessary that He make application or imputation on behalf of the merit of His sacrifice could be "holy and acceptable unto God"; and "only by their sacrifices and the Divine acceptance of them could they be begotten of the Holy Spirit to the new nature, the divine nature, which they will fully receive, if faithful, in the chief resurrection."

What force we thus see is attached to the Master's words, "I go to prepare a place for you." Unless He had thus prepared the way, unless He had become our Surety, we never could have become acceptable in the Father's sight, and the Redeemer's associates on the spirit plane. But there is still another sense in which the Redeemer is preparing for His Church, His followers. He has, as their great High Priest, not only opened up the way to God, but He continues to be their Intercessor and to propitiate to them of His merit to cover their continual trespasses and shortcomings, which are the result, not of wilfulness, but of weakness and heredity—shortcomings against which they strive, but by which at times they are overtaken—sins of omission if not of commission.

How precious to every child of God are the words of the Apostle, "If we sin we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous!" Let us, therefore, come with courage to the Throne of heavenly grace that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in every time of need, for we have an High Priest who can be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, having been tempted in all points like as we of the new creation are tempted (I John ii, 1, 2; Hebrews iv, 15, 16).

"I Will Come Again."

There appears to be a disposition on the part of many to deny that there will be a second advent of the Redeemer. They reason that what has not occurred in more than eighteen centuries should cease to be expected. They endeavor to find the fulfillment, the promised second coming of the Savior, in the Pentecostal blessing. But this cannot satisfy those who have implicit trust in the Lord, and who believe that the Apostles were his specially appointed mouthpieces, for did not the Apostles, long after Pentecost, tell of the second coming of the Lord, and did not Jesus Himself in the last book of the Bible declare His coming and His marriage to the Church, His acceptance of her and the giving to her a share in His glory?

The erroneous thought that Jesus is still a man and that His second coming will be as a man in glory and power, has done much injury to the Church. It has turned the attention of some to looking for and expecting Messiah's Empire to be purely an earthly one. It has led others to deny the second coming and the Kingdom entirely. The proper view of our Lord's ascension to the glory to the divine nature and honor next to the Father, never more to return to earthly conditions, lifts us above the difficulties mentioned.

We now see that the One who will come in power and great glory will be a Spirit Being wholly invisible to mankind, but nevertheless the very same Jesus, the same personality, the same Ego, who was once amongst men; the same Ego or personality who previously was with the Father on the spirit plane, and who humbled Himself to man's estate in order that He might accomplish a work of redemption for Adam and his race. The Redeemer says of Himself, "I am He who was dead, and behold I am alive forevermore." And He who was dead, was He not the same One who previously was rich and for our sakes became poor? Can we not, therefore, hold clearly to the distinctions of nature, and yet see through the two changes the maintenance of the original personality?

He Will Come in Like Manner.

The angels who appeared to the Apostles when the Master vanished from their sight declared that He would come in like manner as He went away. Did He go in a blaze of glory witnessed by the whole world of mankind? No! Neither will He so come. Did He go amidst great convulsions and the blast of trumpets? No! Neither will He so come. Was His departure seen and known throughout the world? No! Neither will His arrival be seen and known; as He declared, He will come as a thief in the night and will be present, unknown to the world. Only a few knew of His departure and could tell it to others. In like manner a second coming will be known only to the few, who will declare it to such as have the hearing ear.

Concerning this secret arrival of the Lord, "as a thief in the night," the Apostle declares, "Ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief" (I Thessalonians v, 4).

The day of revelation will come, but it will be after the Bride class, the elect Church, is with the Redeemer, a sharer of His glory, honor and immortality. "When He shall appear, ye also shall appear with Him in glory" (I John iii, 2). The revelation will be in flaming fire—a manifestation of righteousness, opposition to all things sinful and approval of all things in harmony with the golden rule. This will mean at the first a great time of trouble, an overturning and transformation in the world's affairs. As the Prophet declares, "The rich men shall be perished. . . . Many poor ones doubtless will also weep, for righteousness is not consumed by race."

or class. All evil-doers will suffer, all well-doers will be blessed.

As soon as this new ruling of Messiah's Kingdom shall come to be thoroughly recognized and appreciated, "the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness" (Isaiah xlii, 9). Then the great blessing of Emmanuel's Government will kiss away the world's sorrow and tears and death, as a great Sun of Righteousness arising. Messiah's Kingdom will flood the earth with the light of the knowledge of the goodness of God and with His blessing, "which maketh rich and addeth no sorrow therewith." Ignorance, superstition, sin and death will flee away before the light of that New Dispensation, and only those who resist it willfully will be smitten with the Second Death.

Rule With a Rod of Iron.

The great heavenly King and His Bride will rule man's affairs with a rod of iron, which will break in pieces and destroy institutions contrary to the Golden Rule. This power over the nations belongs to the Redeemer and will be shared, as promised, with His Church. But first, before that manifestation of the Kingdom in power and glory and with flaming fire, will come the Master's parousia, or secret-known only to the "watchers"—to the saints, through their understanding of the Divine prophecies, to which their eyes of understanding will be opened.

In the harvest time He will be present to gather the wheat into His garner, through the change of the Chief Resurrection, which will take place in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, because "flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God." During this period of parousia, preceding the outward manifestation to the world, the Heavenly Lord, invisible to men, will judge amongst those who have professed to be His servants—determining which may enter into the Kingdom and share its glories, and which have been unprofitable servants, who may not share with Him in the Kingdom glory, because they have failed to share with Him in the sacrifice and ignominy of the present time.

This judging of the Church is particularly indicated in two of our Lord's parables relating to the pounds and the talents given to His servants when He took His departure. In His parousia He will reckon with His servants, rewarding the faithful with a share with Him in His Kingdom glory. "Well done, good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joys of thy Lord—hath thou dominion over two cities, over five cities, etc. (Matthew xxv, 21; Luke xix, 16-18). The gathering of the wheat, the change of the saints, will be the marriage or union with their glorious Head and Bridegroom. Meantime, those purposing to be of the Bride will make themselves ready and assist each other in preparation for the glorious consummation of their most wonderful hopes.

The Thousand-Year-Judgment Day of the World.

The Master said, "My word shall judge you in the last day." Happy has it been for the few who have heard the Master's Word in this present life, and have judged themselves thereby, and submitted themselves to His righteous precepts! These blessed ones will share with Messiah the glories of His Spiritual Empire, invisible to men. But during the Thousand-Year-Judgment Day of the world (II Peter iii, 7, 8) the same words—"the wonderful words of life" to those who will obey and words of death to those who will refuse obedience—will be the standards of justice for all mankind.

This judgment of the world will not be merely of those living at the time of the establishment of the Kingdom, but will include all that are in their graves (John v, 28). As all are condemned through one man's disobedience, so the redemption for all will be accomplished through the obedience of One, which will secure to each and all an opportunity for eternal life, either on the spirit plane, during this Gospel Age, or on the earthly plane to Paradise restored, during Messiah's reign.

The judgment of the Church is not according to works, the perfection of which, under prevailing conditions, would be impossible, hence, the Church's judgment is according to faith and the obedience of faith possible. But the world's judgment will be according to works, for the knowledge then will be so great that faith will no longer be at a premium. The great Mediator will accept of imperfect works according to the ability of the people; but, as they rise out of degradation, more and more will be required of them, until in the end they will be perfected and absolute perfection of works will be required.

Then death and the grave will be swallowed up in the antitypical gehenna of annihilation—"the Second Death"—and all not worthy of record in the Book of Life will be destroyed from among the people (Revelation xx, 12-15; Acts iii, 22). But, thank God, this irremediable destruction of the Second Death will come only upon wilful evil-doers of the class mentioned in this text—often reproved and yet stiff-necked. Some of the Church might be classed in this category because of previous enlightenment, etc., enjoyed, but surely the world in general has not had such reproofs and such an intelligent understanding of the Lord as would make them properly amenable to the Second Death. And God purposes that every member of Adam's race must have this full, complete privilege and opportunity for eternal life before he can be sentenced to the Second Death.

FARMER INSTITUTES IN LICKING COUNTY

If application is made on or before July 1, many new farmers' institutes will be granted to places not having them last year.

The state board of agriculture desires to reach communities not heretofore favored by these meetings. New features will be introduced. Exhibits and demonstration work will add interest.

Official reports from last season's meetings indicate an increase of 10 per cent over attendance of previous year. More practical work and less entertainment will be the policy of the state board toward future institutes. Public funds should be used for real public good and not for amusement features.

Before any town or place is granted an institute, assurance must be given that a good building, well lighted and heated, will be furnished. The state board may authorize as much as $21.25 to be paid out of the state institute fund, for local expenses of each institute granted by it. The institute can be held at no cost whatever to the citizens of the community if the proper application is made to the board in time.

Every town is benefited in which an institute is held. Every part of each county is entitled to receive some of the benefits from this expenditure of public funds. Write at once for application blanks and instructions to A. P. Sandies, Secretary, Columbus, O.

An Election Story From Hungary. An electioneering story from Hungary, as told by Mr. R. W. Seton-Watson in "Corruption and Reform in Hungary." "Not many years ago a noble count stood as candidate for a west Hungarian constituency and was in due course elected. Soon afterward a deputation of the electors visited him in Budapest, reminded him of his promises at the time of the election and asked him to use his influence in a certain direction. 'Why do you come to me?' asked the count. 'Why, because you are our representative.' 'Nothing of the kind,' said the count. 'I bought the constituency for $2,000. You all had your price—free lunches and free drinks into the bargain. I'm — if I do anything for you. We are quits.' And in another minute the deputation found itself in the street."

Facts About Motherhood

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at the time of child-birth, but many approach the experience with an organism unprepared for the trial of strength, and when the strain is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following strain upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unpleasant things that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, women will persist in going blindly to the trial, are as much the result of the experience as the child-birth itself. They have ample time in which to prepare, but they, for the most part, trust to chance and pay the penalty.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy, and strong.

Any woman who would like special advice in regard to this matter is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. Her letter will be held in strict confidence.

IS REACHING OHIO FARMERS

Although not heard of as much outside of its own state as some institutions, the Agricultural Extension Department of the College of Agriculture, Ohio State University, is carrying the gospel of agriculture, education to thousands of Ohio people every year. This department was established about six years ago with A. B. Graham at its head. In a quiet and unassuming way he has built it up and expanded its work until now it stands among the foremost in the country in the immense amount of work being done and the number of people reached.

Perhaps the best way to summarize the above statement is to give a primary of the different kinds of extension work conducted by the department during the ten months from July 1, 1910 to May 1, 1911. Seventy-nine Agricultural Extension Schools for men and 75 Domestic Science Schools for women were held during that period. The total attendance at these schools was 17,000. Instruction in soil fertility, farm crops, live stock, dairy, horticulture, special trains were run over Ohio railroads, at which lectures were given to 16,190 people. These trains covered various phases of agricultural education.

Nine instructors gave 82 lectures at open Grange meetings in 36 counties, the total attendance being 2900 people. These same instructors visited 125 farms in connection with their lectures, giving expert advice on farm matters. Orchard pruning and spraying demonstrations to the number of 125 were given, with an attendance of 12,500, making nearly 49,000 people reached by the schools, special trains, grange lectures, and orchard demonstrations.

Besides these lines of work, exhibits were made at 12 county fairs, at the National Corn Show and the State Apple Show; two Saturday meetings for teachers teaching agriculture were held; 123 school visits in the interest of agricultural and domestic art contests were made; 103 citizens' meetings, farmers' institutes, commencement, etc., eight special domestic science meetings of 1 to 4 days each and six county life conferences were held, at which no count was kept of the number reached.

About 200 boys' corn contests and girls' sewing and baking contests are being conducted, including about 12,000 boys and girls. Corn was judged at 30 corn shows. Corn and soil samples were collected from different parts of the state for testing and analysis; hundreds of plants, insects, etc. were identified.

In addition to the above, 148 county newspapers were furnished monthly plate matter on agricultural subjects; 30,000 copies of the Agricultural College Extension Bulletin were issued each month; six issues of the Farmers' Reading Course Bulletin, 5,000 copies each; six issues of the Home Makers' Reading Course Bulletin, 5,000 copies each; supplements on corn, grain drills, poultry, dairying, drainage, pruning, spraying, and methods of teaching agriculture, 10,000 to 25,000 copies each were distributed over the state.

The services of the Agricultural Extension Department are in great demand. Supt. A. B. Graham has already received requests for 1911-1912 as follows: 91 applications for agricultural extension schools, in 66 different counties; 6 agricultural trains for August, 1911, and correspondence for three trains at other times; nearly 170 newspaper articles for agricultural matter in plate form, 45 requests for exhibits at county fairs.

A great deal might be said about these various lines of work, but it is sufficient to state that it is very effective and that the influence of the College of Agriculture is being felt over the state of Ohio, through the operations of its splendidly organized Extension Department.

OVER A CENTURY OLD, BUT STILL VIGOROUS

Readers of the Advocate will be interested in the announcement of the approach of the 125th birthday anniversary of the Pittsburgh Gazette Times.

The Gazette Times is planning a birthday celebration that will be unique in the history of journalism. During the week of July 24-29 it will issue six historical souvenir numbers that should be bought and preserved by every reader of the Advocate. These special issues will review the world's progress of the past 125 years.

Each day's issue will be devoted to special subjects, the arrangements being as follows: July 24, Building Construction and Empire Building; July 25, Iron, Steel, Glass, Banking and Business; July 26, Food and Food Products; July 27, Clothing and Merchandising; July 28, Electricity, Comforts, Music and Education. The history of the Gazette Times will also be printed on this date.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR VETS

Patriotic Societies Attend in a Body.
Splendid Sermon Delivered by Rev. J. M. Thomas.

The Grand Army, Woman's Veteran Legion, Old Guard, Woman's Relief Corps, Sons of Veterans and Daughters of Veterans attended memorial services Sunday at Plymouth church. The procession was formed at Memorial Hall, headed by Lemert Post Drum Corps, and marched to the church in the following order:
Sons of Veterans.
Daughters of Veterans.
Old Guard.
Lemert Post.

Quite a large number of the different organizations attended the services, which were very impressive. The sermon delivered by Rev. Mr. Thomas was pronounced by all one of the finest ever delivered before these bodies. The music was appropriate and excellently well rendered by the choir.

Everybody left the church well pleased with the services and especially the kind words of appreciation of the old soldier and his work during 1861-65, expressed by Rev. Mr. Thomas in his discourse.

Special mention is made of the way in which "Just Before the Battle, Mother," was rendered by the organist. So beautiful and soft, it brought tears to the eyes of many of the old veterans.

The Other Side.
"It's all very well for the minister to preach from the text, 'Remember Lot's wife,'" said an overworked, discouraged man, "but I wish he would now give us an encouraging sermon upon the wife's lot."

The Puzzle.
A Boston girl who was watching a farmer milk a cow adjusted her glasses and said, "It is all very plain except that I don't understand how you turn it off."

They Got It.

TAKES FANCY WORK TO CONGRESS HALLS

MRS. W. P. BORLAND

Mrs. William P. Borland, wife of a Representative from Missouri, has inaugurated a new "time-killer" for wives of House members who desire to hear their husbands speak. She takes her fancy work to her chair and piles her embroidery needle while she waits. This promises soon to be a popular pastime with the Congressional lady contingent.

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE BY NEWARK VETERANS

The Grand Army Drill Corps, by oversight, was omitted from the list of organizations forming the column for parade, as published in Saturday's issue. All soldiers not marching to the cemetery and who desire to take part in the decoration of the graves, should fall in with the column of old soldiers, Spanish War Veterans or Sons of Veterans as soon as the marching bodies are halted south of the mound, and be assigned to decorating companies. Old soldiers not able to march from the square to the cemetery and then take part in decorating graves should take cars at First street and await column at cemetery gate. The four ceremonies at Cedar Hill will be:

1. The usual decoration of the graves.
2. Ceremony at cross roads just north of mound, in memory of the absent dead soldiers entitled to burial at Cedar Hill, and the dead army nurses.
3. Ceremony at mound, consisting of reading of Lincoln's Gettysburg address by Carl Ward, firing of salute to the dead by Co. G and Grand Army drill corps, benediction by Chaplain B. D. Barr, taps by buglers.
4. Naval ceremony at pond for sailors and marines buried at sea. This will be a beautiful ceremony. Flares should be freely displayed tomorrow.

American Sailors Entertained.

Copenhagen, May 29.—The navy department yesterday entertained 400 petty officers of the United States squadron on motor trips and at a luncheon in the Tivoli garden. Each of the guests was presented with a clear case emblazoned with the Danish and United States arms.

PLANNED OVERTHROW

pose of obtaining funds for the Madero military chiefs.

Both men were in constant telegraphic communication with Andres Garza Galan of Ciudad Portifrio Diaz, who is said to be one of the leaders of the Cientifico party in the state of Coahuila.

Both De Villiers and Dunn, in their talk with Generals Villjoen and Orozco, claimed they had secured the cooperation of General Figueroa, the rebel leader of the south, and that General Trevino, commander of the federal forces in Monterey, has promised assistance when the new revolt began.

In messages from Senor Galan, in Ciudad Portifrio Diaz, to both De Villiers and Dunn, the existence of a plot on the life of General Madero was disclosed. General Villjoen last night declared that $25,000 had been promised him if he would participate in the conspiracy. General Pascual Orozco, he said, was to get any amount he named and was to be chief of the military zone comprehended by the northern states of Mexico. Just what complicity with the Mexican government existed in the work of the accused men, General Villjoen declared was not apparent, though the first telegram to him used the words, "Government wants to make you a proposition." General Villjoen asserted that the most prominent Cientificos were mentioned to him by both De Villiers and Dunn in their conversations, especially Rosendo Pinedo, leader of the Cientifico party in the Mexican congress. The plot, if successful, he declared, was to put Pinedo in the presidency.

In their efforts to secure evidence against Dunn and De Villiers General Villjoen accepted $480 and General Orozco $200, which was placed in the funds of the provisional government. The steps taken by Villjoen to encourage those who were attempting to bribe him were known to Senor Madero and the campaign against them was carefully mapped out within the last 10 days.

Names have been secured through the contents of messages said to involve some of the most prominent men in Mexico, and a future investigation is said will disclose their identity.

De Villiers and Dunn had allies in a local hotel during their stay here, but their movements were watched constantly by local detectives, informed by General Villjoen of the conspiracy.

"Dunn and De Villiers told me," said General Villjoen, "that they had plenty of rifles and ammunition concealed in the coal mines of Coahuila. They also said they had with them all the parades and special police of Mexico City, numbering over 2000 men, as well as Figueroa's forces."

"They kept mentioning the money influence of the Cientifico party and presented papers and telegrams, which, though in a secret code, when translated presents incriminating evidence."

More Mexican Trouble.

El Paso, May 29.—To add to the many troubles of Francisco Madero, the legislature of the state of Sonora today refused to install Madero's selection as governor of that state. Madero has ordered troops to surround the city and compel the legislature to take the action he demands.

KILLED IN RUNAWAY.

Postoria, May 29.—A break in the harness caused the team of Charles Morgan of Rising Sun to run away at Prairie Depot and Mrs. Morgan was thrown out and killed. Morgan, his two infant daughters, and his mother were uninjured.

ARIZONA AND NEW MEXICO STATEHOOD

Washington, May 29.—After having worked 18 years for the admission of Arizona and New Mexico as separate states of the Union, the Democratic majority of the House found it a genuine labor of love to pass the statehood resolution.

In voting for the admission of the territories as states, the House neither endorsed nor condemned the recall of judges. What the House actually did was to endorse local self government and the right of the state to control its own affairs.

For 60 years New Mexico has been at the doors of Congress for admission. Arizona has also long contended its right to statehood. The 1908 Democratic platform pledged the "immediate admission of these territories as separate states." This pledge was carried out before the Democrats had been in control of the House three months, which action was in striking contrast to the juggling the statehood measures have been receiving year after year at the hands of the now minority of the House.

The debate in the House on the statehood resolution indicated plainly what would have been the result had the Republicans still been in the majority. They would have admitted New Mexico with the gerrymander of her legislature, and would have made the recall of judges a pretext for keeping Arizona indefinitely out of the Union. This is plainly seen by the speeches and votes of the Republicans in favor of immediate admission of New Mexico and against the admission of Arizona.

The real motive for this was in the promise that New Mexico would elect two senators to reinforce the declining Republican majority in the Senate and in the certainty that Arizona will elect two Democrats.

COMMENCEMENT PRESENTS

Do not think of buying a gift for the graduate without taking a good look through Haynes Bros. jewelry store, at 7 North Park.

You will see more beautiful inexpensive articles in gold and silver than you could possibly have imagined. There are diamond rings, watches, brooches, rings of all kind, necklaces, chains, charms, lockets, pendants, scarf pins, cuff buttons, buckles, pins, studs, bracelets, ear pendants, hatpins, all kinds of articles in silver, cut glass and brass, silver purses, fountain pens, Kodaks and many other things.

SUCCESS MAXIMS.

Many people like to tell the other fellow how to succeed. The platform and the press abound in maxims for the successful, and lately the "back to the farm" movement has been exploited by many writers.

As a maxim of success consider this — you make money every time you save money, and you have it every time you take advantage of the innumerable extraordinary opportunities presented in the Want Columns each day.

The practical thing to do is to read the Want Columns systematically — it will pay you well for the time you devote to it. You will be surprised in a short time to find how much you have made by doing business through the Want Columns — the people's big popular market place.

CURES RHEUMATISM

If It Don't You Can Get Your Money Back, Says Evans' Drug Store.

Now when Evans' Drug Store, the well known druggist, makes such an offer as that, where, Oh where, is the man or woman full of Uric Acid poison, which is the same as Rheumatism who is going to turn it down?

Evans' Drug Store has sold a whole lot of Rheuma these last few months and if it didn't do as advertised, he could not afford to make the offer.

Here is more proof: Porter Smith, Dobbin, W. Va., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from rheumatism for about 26 years and the disease had become chronic. I began taking Rheuma with little faith in its virtues but was better from the first day. I began its use and at this time have no more pains."

LOOKS LIKE A MONSTROUS SWINDLE

The Government Pays $204,000 for a Portrait That Only Cost $650.

Washington, May 29.—An $850 portrait of former secretary of state Day cost the government $204,000 according to Albert Rosenthal, a portrait painter. He told the house committee on expenditures today that he received a personal check for $850 from Chief Michaels for the picture and had afterwards discovered that the government voucher called for $204,000. The committee at once adjourned after issuing a subpoena for file check and the vouchers.

EXHIBIT OF SERVING WORK

The Domestic Art department of the public schools will hold an exhibit of the sewing work done by the girls in the sixth and seventh grades, in the Domestic Science laboratory in the high school building. Thursday afternoon, June 1, from 1 to 5 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to inspect the work done by the girls.

OBITUARY

LUTHER C. APPLIGATE.

Luther C. Appligate, member of the firm of Appligate Bros., dealers in plumbing and bicycle supplies, 17 North Fourth street, died at the McMillen Sanitarium at Sheppard Station, near Columbus, Monday morning about 5:30 o'clock, after an illness of some time with a complication of troubles, aged about 37 years. The deceased was taken over to the sanitarium some 10 or 12 days ago, and although everything possible was done, he gradually grew worse until Monday morning, when he passed away. He is survived by his widow and one daughter, who have the sympathy of all their friends. The body will be brought to Newark and taken to the home some time this evening. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

MATHEW A. KERNAN.

Mathew Arthur Kernan, aged 78 years, one of anesville's best known citizens, died at the family home, Woodlawn avenue and Jefferson St., Saturday morning. The deceased was a native of Ireland, having come to Zanesville when quite young. He engaged in business there in 1866, but retired from active duty several years ago.

His widow and nine children survive: Mary R., D. L. and Terry of the home, Rev. Father J. E. Kernan of Springfield, Ky., Mrs. W. B. Wingerter of Newark, J. D., Michael, P. S. and Mrs. D. D. Luby of Zanesville. Funeral services will be conducted at the St. Thomas Catholic church at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. Interment in Mt. Calvary cemetery.

FEET FEEL FINE

No More Sore, Tired, Aching, Burning, Weary Feet Since EZO Came to Newark.

Perhaps you have tried them all, but EZO is different.

It's a refreshing and refined ointment and is so full of medicinal virtue that the poorest pair of tired, worn out, all in feet will feel better in two minutes.

And so easy to apply—no fussing around—just rub it on and rub out all the pain and burning. It's for corns, bunions and callouses also, and the quick relief it gives will make you wonder why you never heard of it before.

EZO is the one sure curtain maker of happy feet; it's the real thing to make your feet as good as new overnight. If your work forces you to stand on your feet most of the day you simply can't be happy until you get a 25 cent jar of EZO.

Druggists everywhere sell it. Generous jar for a quarter—substitutes won't do, mail orders filled, charges prepaid, from Ezo Chemical Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by Evans' Drug Store.

ALL READY FOR MEMORIAL DAY

All the arrangements have been completed for the observance of Memorial Day in this city tomorrow, and the indications are that it will be celebrated on a more extensive scale than ever before.

At 7:30 a. m. the section for Mt. Calvary, Capt. John Hizer, commanding, will move in wagons to that cemetery and decorate the graves, 48 in number.

The column for the parade will form on North Second street at 9 a. m. sharp.

Formation of column:

Squad of Police.

Grand Marshal R. C. Bigbee.

Chief of Staff E. E. Blizzard.

Staff.

Field Music—Drum Corps.

Co. G, 4th Inf., O. N. G.

United Spanish War Veterans.

Sons of Veterans.

Lemert Post, G. A. R.

Union Veteran Legion.

Civic Organizations.

Orator of Day in Carriage.

Woman's Relief Corps, Daughters of Veterans, Flower Girls in Wagons.

At 9:15 the column will move on north side of public square and march in the usual manner around the square and east on East Main street, halting at First street to allow old soldiers to take street cars. The column will then proceed to Cedar Hill. Upon arrival at the cemetery the column will be halted at a point just south of the Mound.

As far as known, there are only three survivors of the Mexican War still living in Newark and Licking county. They are Captain Daniel Darlington and Captain Fleming of Newark, and Captain Fisher of Granville. If able they will all ride in the procession tomorrow.

MEMORIAL DAY REGATTA AT THE LAKE TUESDAY

Splendid Program Has Been Arranged and Large Crowds Are Expected.

Sunday proved to be the largest day this season at Buckeye Lake Park and from early morning the grounds and water were thronged with visitors from Zanesville, Newark and Columbus. Many of the cottagers are now settled for the summer and new arrivals follow each day.

Memorial Day is always one of the biggest on the park calendar, and tomorrow promises to be no exception. From present indications the attendance record will be broken. Beginning with Saturday night the hotels were crowded with guests who desired to remain over until after Decoration Day. There will be people present from all over the state, one of the big drawing cards being the regatta given by the Buckeye Lake Yacht Club. A large part of the membership of the club will be present to participate, as all club members are eligible.

The following attractive program has been arranged:

Free for All Sail Yacht Race — Warning gun 8:45, preparatory gun 8:55 and starting gun 9 a. m.

Prizes, 1st trophy flag, 2d trophy flag.

Free for All Power Boat Race — Warning gun 10:15, preparatory gun 10:25 and starting gun 10:30.

Prizes, 1st W. F. Andrus trophy cup and flag, 2d trophy flag.

Handicap Power Boat Race — Warning gun 11:15, preparatory gun 11:25, starting gun 11:30.

Prizes, 1st W. F. Andrus trophy cup and flag, 2d trophy flag; points for season's trophy cup.

Cat Boat Race — Warning gun 1:45, preparatory gun 1:50, starting gun 2.

Prizes, 1st trophy flag, 2d trophy flag.

This race will be the first leg for the Washington Brewery Company's trophy, race ending July 4, and the first leg for the Goodman Brothers' trophy, race ending Labor Day.

The catboat race, which will start at 2 o'clock, will be, no doubt a very entertaining one, as all the new boats which are just being rigged, will be in this race, making 14 in number, all of one class.

DENISON MEN AT CINCINNATI

Cincinnati, May 29.—The first annual banquet of the Cincinnati Denison club, made up of the local alumni of Denison University at Granville, O., was held Saturday evening at the Gibson House and was attended by more than 60 former students. The toastmaster was Samuel B. Bierley of Chicago, president of the National Alumni Association, who also responded to the toast, "Denison Alumni." Others who responded were: Burton B. Tuttle, Rev. George W. Phillips, Dr. Frank W. Sage and Prof. Charles E. Goodell of Denison University. The officers of the local club are: Frank R. Morse, president; George C. Platts, vice president; Allen C. Roubush, secretary and treasurer.

LOCAL BOY GETS A FINE POSITION WITH THE SANTA FE

Mr. Carl Meyers of Buckingham street, this city, now working as operator for the Western Union Telegraph company in Cincinnati, will leave Saturday, June 3rd, for Topeka, Kansas, where he has accepted a position as assistant train dispatcher on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad at that place. His many friends wish him the best of luck in his new position.

NASAL CATARRH

Mrs. E. Karberg Says It Is Easy to Get Rid Of.

"A bad case of catarrh was cured for me by the use of HYOMEI. The trouble affected my head, nose and eyes and was very annoying and disagreeable, and the cure, from the use of HYOMEI, was very gratifying. HYOMEI has from me a strong recommendation and endorsement."

Mrs. E. Karberg, 213 Kingsley St., Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 16, 1908.

HYOMEI (pronounced High-o-me) cures catarrh, because it gets where the germs are, and destroys them. It is made of Australian eucalyptus, mixed with other healing antiseptics. When breathed over the irritated membrane it gives relief in two minutes.

Used regularly for a few weeks, it will build up and heal the germ-infested membranes and drive out catarrh.

If you own a small Hyomei pocket inhaler, you can get a bottle of HYOMEI at druggists everywhere, or at Evans' Drug Store for only 50 cents. If you do not own a Hyomei inhaler ask for a complete outfit, the price is $1.00. It is guaranteed to cure catarrh, coughs, colds, croup or sore throat, or money back.

There was a time when housekeepers felt they "just had" to keep half a dozen different kinds of soap on hand.

But that was before Ivory Soap was made.

Such a thing is no longer necessary; or desirable.

For the bath, for the toilet, for fine laundry purposes, Ivory Soap answers every requirement.
